

Am I Plagiarizing?

Start Here

Did you use someone else's information, idea, or work?

Check out our helpful citation tools & guides on EasyBib.com!

YES

Doing so without a citation is plagiarizing.

NO

Are you using work you did for a previous project?

Was a line of text copied word for word?

YES

You're using a direct quote!

Place quotation marks around the quote and include an in-text or parenthetical citation.

NO

Did you take someone else's information or idea and put it in your own words?

YES

You're using a paraphrase!

Include an in-text or parenthetical citation.

NO

Did you copy an image, chart, or another source type?

YES

You need to include an in-text or parenthetical citation.

NO

You're Not Plagiarizing, But...

A quality project should include information from outside sources combined with your own writing and analysis.

Need help? Ask your librarian or teacher!

Cite It or You're Plagiarizing

You're Not Done Yet!

You also need to create a full citation for each source and place it at the end of your project.